Presentations

1. Positively Charged

Vaccines have been distributed to some of the staff so far. The allotment in education is on pause this week and the focus will again be on the community and healthcare workers. The next week, we will resume with education and in a couple weeks we will start to distribute the second round of vaccines.

2. Public Participation
3. Student Achievement

The grades for the 2nd 9 weeks will come in soon and we can analyze data. After the 1st 9 weeks, some students had a wake up call, but we're afraid that maybe there are still many students that chose to remain in distance learning and are still not engaging. Our student support staff has been working hard to get them engaged and we have even used the truancy process to help enforce this engagement.

Now that we've had a chance to reflect on the first half of the school year, we must now focus on what happens next and how to recover from the challenges we've had during the past year.

Reports of Committees

1. Roane-Jackson Technical Center Administrative Council (1/19/2021)

Adult programs resumed last week and high school programs resumed this week. Soon, we expect to receive an interpretation at the state level saying that multi-county centers can operate somewhat independently of their county concerning the color map. This would allow RCHS students to attend RJTC when Jackson County schools are closed.

Also, discussing future plans for "recovery," in the past, there was a day where middle school students were taken to RJTC to show them the different programs and options RCTC offers. It gets the students thinking early about their interest in different careers for their future.

The water plant project is still pending on design. Hopefully this can be replaced this Summer.

Superintendent's Remarks

On my schedule these weeks, I've attended Bowles Rice training webinars as a refresher for personnel. Mr. Garner, Ms. Cole and I were also able to serve as substitute administrators at SMS this week to keep that school running. I've also worked with our tech team to fix some technology issues. The tech team is now trying to start a new schedule to work at BOE offices during the morning and at the schools in the afternoons. They are also working on laptops for the Tools for Schools grant, which will give every teacher at RCHS, SMS and and full at the other schools, to replace their laptops.

Keep an eye on the legal actions with the state. Though we are not directly involved in the legal actions that are taking place, we may be affected.
